

Cocoa Ginger Lotion Bars

sweet and spicy solid lotion bars

Ingredients

- 2 ounces (60 g) cocoa butter
- 1 ounce (30 g) virgin coconut oil
- 1/2 ounce (15 g) apricot kernel oil
- 3/4 ounce (23 g) beeswax
- 1/8 teaspoon (0.65 ml) ginger essential oil
- 1/8 teaspoon (0.65 ml) organic vanilla select co2 extract

Makes four 4-ounce bars

Directions:

1. Combine cocoa butter, coconut oil, and beeswax in a heatproof container or double boiler. Heat on stovetop (using double boiler) or in the microwave using short, 30-second bursts.
2. When oils and waxes are melted, add apricot oil and stir together.
3. Add essential oils last. Stir well, then pour into molds.
4. Pop molds into the freezer and chill until fully hardened (about 15 minutes). Gently tap bars out of mold and store in cool place until use.

Usage & Packaging:

- To use, warm lotion bar between your palms, then rub onto arms, legs, and torso. The lotion will melt slowly when massaged into the skin.
- Lotion bars should be packaged in tins, jars, or bags when not in use. Our Small Cello Bags would be perfect for packaging these bars.
